Dear [Redacted]

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of April 17, 1947.

As I discussed with you when you last visited my office, your employment has been held in abeyance pending receipt of instructions from [Redacted] who was advised of our over-all personnel situation by letter. It has been decided that no further commitments will be made pending a careful survey of our present grades and ratings, and the adjustment thereof to conform to a new table of organization which has just been received.

I regret, therefore, that we cannot further consider your employment at this time. I shall keep your application in our active file and advise you if, and when, a position vacancy for which we feel you are well qualified is open.

Very truly yours,

[Redacted]
